> 2... To put a railway crossing across the a21 is ludicrous, I live on the Salehurst side of Robertsbridge and cross the a21 most days on the Rd crossing, which is meant to be 30 MPH, well half the time the traffic doesn't even stop when the lights say red, and they drive so fast they can't stop, people are driving in so much of a hurry, my worry is that if they know there is a railway crossing and it's going to stop them it will get worse, why put more dangers in the way ??
