Dear Sir,

Most things in life have Pros and Cons. The Pros for completion of the railway link from Tenterden and Bodiam to Robertsbridge will heavily outweigh the Cons. In particular, the direct interchange with National Rail will facilitate tourist visits to Bodiam and elsewhere that at present are made either by car or not at all. Please therefore grant this Order, including the option for compulsory purchase of certain parcels of land if that proves necessary.

Richard

Dear Sir,

Re-sending as I realised I had omitted my full name and my address.
