

Note on Mott MacDonald Staff in Attendance at the Ecology Session in the Inquiry on 23 May 2018

1. Paul Renshaw and Amy Cox, both of Mott MacDonald, attended the ecology session to provide advice and support to Network Rail's team. They are not expert witnesses and did not perform that role.
2. Paul Renshaw is a Senior Ecologist with eight years' consultancy experience and 10 years at Natural England. Mr Renshaw is a Chartered Environmentalist and full member of the professional body for ecologists the Chartered Institute for Environmental and Ecological Management. He has professional experience of ecological field surveys, assessment and Natural England licensing, and input into documentation for a number of Environmental Impact Assessment (EIAs) for transport, buildings and infrastructure projects.
3. Prior to joining the consultancy sector Mr Renshaw worked at Natural England in a number of roles, including as a Wildlife Management Advisor providing licensing decisions on protected species, including great crested newt, bats and badgers.
4. Amy Cox is an Environmental & Sustainability consultant with 5 years of industry experience and is the environmental co-ordinator for the Anglia Level Crossings Reduction Strategy. Miss Cox's qualifications include a MSc in Sustainability, Environmental Consultancy and Project Management and she is a Graduate Member of the Institute of Environmental Management and Assessment
5. Miss Cox has experience of co-ordinating and undertaking Sustainability Appraisals (SA), Strategic Environmental Assessments (SEA) and Environmental Impact Assessments (EIA) for major infrastructure planning applications including TWAO and Development Consent Orders (DCO). Her experience also includes environmental appraisals & action plans, risk assessments & feasibility studies. She is also a qualified CEEQUAL Projects Assessor.