CRIMINAL JUSTICE AND POLICE ACT 2001

THE LOCAL AUTHORITIES (ALCOHOL CONSUMPTION IN DESIGNATED PUBLIC PLACES) REGULATIONS 2007

NOTICE OF INTENDED REVOCATION OF DESIGNATED PUBLIC PLACE ORDER

The above legislation, since repealed by the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act, 2014 which introduced new powers, gave local authorities the power to designate public places where restrictions to public drinking apply.

The act of drinking alcohol in a designated place is not a criminal offence. An offence only occurs when an individual over the age of 18, fails to comply when an authorised person, such as a police officer, requests that they refrain from drinking.

The Council is currently consulting on the revocation of the Designated Public Place Order in Royston. A map of the area covered in the Order will be available to view on the Council's website: www.north-herts.gov.uk from the 1st July 2017. The website also includes a list of the alcohol licensed premises within the Order. A copy of the map and alcohol licensed premises within the curtilage of the Order will also be made available at the Council Offices, Town Lodge, Gernon Road between the hours of 9.00am and 5.00pm Monday to Thursday and 9.00am and 4.00pm on Friday.

Inviting representations

Anyone who wishes to make representations about the impact of the proposed revocation of the Order must do this, in writing, either by email to communitysafety@north-herts.gov.uk or by post to Community Safety, Town Lodge, Gernon Road, Letchworth, Herts, SG6 3HN. You must do this by no later than 31st July 2017 in order for your views to be taken in to consideration. Any information received after this date will be disregarded. Please be aware that all representations including your name and address will be included in a public report.
