Dear Madam,

In order to register your letter as a formal objection we need your full postal address as we cannot correspond with you using a postcode alone. Any person can object to a TWA application regardless of where they live in the country.

Kind regards,

Angela Foster

My postcode is [REDACTED]. I have many friends in this area and visit regularly. Yes, I am a tourist, but this is also why I am objecting so much!

Subject: Rother Valley Railway plans

I'm seriously objecting to the following:

Rother Valley Railway (RVR) application for a Transport and Works Act (TWAo) which incorporates a Compulsory Purchase Order of land to extend their railway from Bodiam to Robertsbridge.

As far as I am aware RVR are providing no extra car parking areas creating long delays, disruption to the village and local roads. This is going to have major negative implications to the local shops and amenities with people, especially locals being discouraged from just popping into the village and using any of them.

Many thanks for reading this and hopefully understanding the increasingly worried residents of the effected areas.

Regards

Rachel Yardley
