Dear Sir or Madam

The Network Rail (Huddersfield to Westtown (Dewsbury) Improvements Order – Statement of Case

This firm is instructed on behalf of Dr Reddy's Laboratories (EU) Limited ("Dr Reddy's" or "our client") in relation to the application submitted on behalf of Network Rail Infrastructure Limited ("Network Rail") for the Network Rail (Huddersfield to Westtown (Dewsbury) Improvements) Order (the "Proposed Order") (the "Application") to authorise the construction and operation of the Trans-Pennine Upgrade (Huddersfield to Westtown) Scheme (the "Scheme").

We enclose with this letter the Statement of Case submitted on behalf of our client in accordance with rule 7(3) of the Transport and Works (Inquiries Procedure) Rules 2004 (the "Rules"). Exhibits are included within the Statement of Case and a list of those is provided within the contents to the Statement of Case. It is confirmed that these are the documents which we intend to refer to on behalf of our client in due course. Please note that whilst reference is made to documents submitted by Network Rail as part of its Application and these may also be referred to in due course, these are not included as Exhibits to the Statement of Case.

A copy of this letter and the Statement of Case enclosed is being served on Network Rail as the applicant by e-mail addressed to Penny.Carter@networkrail.co.uk, in accordance with rule 7(3) of the Rules and the letter issued by this department dated 18 May 2021.

Yours faithfully

Herbert Smith Freehills LLP
